As Day Turns To Evening

As the sun begins to set over the canal-side terrace, the celebration moves upstairs to the Attic Ballroom and Study Bar, where the atmosphere shifts effortlessly from relaxed elegance to evening celebration.

Filled with character and charm, the Attic Ballroom provides a striking setting to welcome evening guests and continue the celebrations long into the night. Exposed beams, warm lighting, and original Victorian features create a space that feels both intimate and full of energy, whether the evening is brought to life by a live band or DJ entertainment.

Alongside the ballroom, the Study Bar offers a stylish retreat for guests to gather between dancing, drinks, and late-night celebrations, while evening snacks can be served as the party continues.

From sunset drinks on the terrace to the first dance beneath the lights of the ballroom, this is where the celebration truly comes alive.

Dining, Your Way ∞

At Lock 91, the wedding breakfast is designed to feel relaxed, sociable, and entirely personal, perfect for couples looking to celebrate in a way that feels a little less traditional and far more reflective of their style.
